ORDERING PROCEDURE

To order the standard 9896A Computation System, specify product number 9896 - this will include those products listed immediately under the 9896A System section. To add to or delete from the standard system, just specify the option number opposite the item(s) you want included or omitted. The corresponding price(s) will be added to or subtracted from the standard system cost, accordingly.

MAINTENANCE AGREEMENTS

Maintenance agreements are recommended for all desktop computing system products. Current U.S. rates are contained in the Maintenance Services and Prices Microfiche, No. 5952-2432D. These agreements represent HP's best level of support. Major advantages to the customer include:

- fixed annual cost,
- priority service response,
- on-site service,
- regular maintenance,
- individualized contracts.
