Take Your DATA With You!

Today's business person needs to be on top of a lot of information in order to succeed.

Combine your PC applications with the portability of the HP palmtop computers and you have the best way to keep track of your contacts wherever you are!

What you need is an easy way to share data between the palmtop and PC so you can take it with you when you leave the office. Keep schedule, to-do's, and contacts on your palmtop up-to-date with your PC applications.

IntelliLink for Windows® is the essential link, providing the total contact management solution!

IntelliLink makes it easy for you to do all this:

- Transfer and translate data in one step
IntelliLink understands the internal format at the field level, which means you don't have to mess around with an intermediate import/export step. IntelliLink provides field level access to data and translates between incompatible formats.

- Reconcile data conflicts
IntelliLink reads and compares data at the field level, identifying conflicts. You then specify the action to be taken: Add, Ignore, Notify, Replace, Update.
- Specify exactly where your data will go
Create your own field maps or use defaults to specify exactly where your data should be sent in the target system.
- Filter out data you don't need to transfer
Transfer a subset of your data by applying filters to a merge. You'll be able to ignore data you don't need to update and deal with what's important to you.
