

Vectra LS/12 Laptop PC Utilities and Drivers Packet

Note

The manuals that come in this Utilities and Drivers Packet should be placed in the MS-DOS Volume I binder behind the tab labeled "Additional Utilities and Drivers." However, if you are NOT using the MS-DOS operating system, do not install any of the utilities in this packet. Instead, return to the Setting Up Your Vectra LS/12 Laptop PC manual and finish setting up your computer.

Introduction to Your Utilities and Drivers

Before You Use the Manuals in This Packet

Did you install your utilities and drivers when you set up your computer?

- YES. Use the manuals in this packet to learn more about your utilities and drivers, skipping the installation section of each manual.
- NO. Be sure you have already setup your computer. Then follow the installation instructions in each manual in this packet to install your utilities and drivers.

What You Need

To install your utilities and drivers, you need the following:

- The SETUP and Utilities Program disc (located at the back of the Setting Up binder).
- The manuals in this packet. (These manuals should now be in your MS-DOS Volume I binder behind the tab labeled “Additional Utilities and Drivers.”)
